

To:

St. Elizabeth University in Bratislava

Dept. for Ranking and Tenure

Vice president for graduations

Bratislava Eur Union SK

Nam. 1. maja 1, P.O.Box 81101

Slovak Republik, EU

In Scranton sept. 15. 2019

re: Peer review of tenure and ranking documents of dr. Bartošovič Ivan, PhD.

Dear Vice President for tenure and ranking

I. History

I well received entire documentation of dr. Bartošovič Ivan as application for her full professorship at you univ and carefully asessed

- a. list of papers
- b. list of presentations posters and lectures
- c. teaching activity and CV
- d. list of quotations
- e. list of scholars phd students
- f. list of reserach activities and grants

II. State of the art

This opinion is based upon enclosed criteria of your university which were enclosed

I assume that, upon study of the enclosed documentation

- a. Dr. I. Bartošovič showed sufficient durable teaching activity in nursing and midwifery
- b. published required amount of papers including books chapters and full papers peer reviewed and indexed also in web of science and other relevant databases, quoted by sufficient amount of other authors outside of her domicile institution or dept, exceeding the recommended criteria
- c. is internationally and natl known as speaker in the field of nursing
- d. educated more than minimal requirement of PhD fellows and master of science students
- e. enclosed CV documents that she can be acceptable as professor also in other healthcare universities and colleges within EU neighbourh states
- f. apart of publishing large amount of papers and book chapters and or ,books in relevant publishing houses showed appropriate research activity within grants in the field of health sciences

III. Conclusions

From the enclosed documentation the candidate undoubtedly fulfill the university critetria for tenure and ranking and my final conclusion is, that my vote for the nomination for full professor in nursing would be positive.

IV. Final vote

yes

Dated

in Scranton sept. 15. 2019

prof. Steven Szydlowski, MBA, MHA, DHA

Panuska School of professional studies

University of Scranton, Scranton, PA